'Peace Walk' to mark 57th Parinirvana Day of our Master and Saviour : Bodhisatva Babasaheb Ambedkar

It is to be held on Friday 6th December 2013. It is our commemorative and remembrance day. We must assemble at 11am sharp, in front of 10 King Henrys Road, Hampstead, London, NW3 3RP. (nearest tube station Chalk Farm, Northern line).

Our great master lived in the middle of Hampstead and St. John's Wood, where some of the richest people reside in London. 92 years back, young Bhimrao Ambedkar used to walk from his residence to LSE, as he didn't have enough money for public transport. Let us remember and walk in his footsteps, just to rededicate ourselves.

This house is owned by private owner. So you are requested to observe silence and do not enter inside on the steps. You may take picture showing the plaque.

On 6th December 1991, London Heritage plaque was unveiled by Roy Hattersley MP, then deputy leader of the Labour party. Also present were: Glenda Jackson MP, Krishna Rajan, High Commissioner of India and the Mayor of London Borough of Camden.

While on Peace Walk procession, no slogans, banners or handing out leaflets to passers by. Those who have walking problems may wish to join at the floral tribute at the Ambedkar Bust at 12.30 at the LSE, Clement House, 99 Aldwych, London, WC2B 4JH. The nearest tube is Holburn on Central Line. (The bust statue stands in the foyer outside the Hong Kong Theatre in the Clement House). This Ambedkar Bust was unveiled by Prof John Ashworth, the Director of the LSE on 14th April 1993.

Thereafter you can join to make floral tribute at Ambedkar Bust, Ambedkar Hall, India House, Aldwych, London, WC2B 4NA. This Ambedkar Bust was unveiled on 14th April 1992 by Chief Emeka Anyaoku, Secretary General of Commonwealth in presence of late Michael Foot MP, leader of the Labour Party and Dr L.M. Singhvi then High Commissioner of India.

Both above Ambedkar Busts and plaques are donated of the Federation of Ambedkarite and Buddhist Organisations UK.

Let us remember and walk in Our master's footsteps, just to rededicate ourselves.

Capture this "Temple of Power" For Your Emancipation

"On the 26th January 1950, we are going to enter into a life of contradictions. In politics we will have equality and in social and economic life we will have inequality & we must remove this contradiction at the earliest possible moment or else those who suffer inequality will blow up the structure of political democracy which this Assembly has so laboriously built up". -Dr. Ambedkar
